

Group of the Progressive Alliance of Socialists & Democrats
in the European Parliament

European Parliament

Achieving long-term security in our societies: Challenging radicalisation between prevention and social reintegration

29 November 2017, from 13.30 to 15.00
European Parliament, Rue Wiertz 60
Room: ASP 3G3

13.30 – Welcoming remarks by MEP Caterina Chinnici

13.40 – Sir Julian King, Commissioner for the security union, (confirmed)

- The approach of the European Commission on radicalisation and terrorism

14.05 – Judy Korn, Working Group leader (Radicalisation Awareness Network Exit) (TBC)

- Strategies to support deradicalisation (leaving radical ideology), 'disengagement' (leaving radical environment and violent behaviour) or 're-socialisation'

14.30 – Raffaele Bracalenti (Psychoanalytic Institute for Social Research) and Isabella Mastropasqua (Department for Juvenile and community Justice, Italian Ministry of Justice)

- Islam inspired terrorism. Towards a Multi-Agency approach to Radicalized Youth in Probation: the state of the art in six European Countries.

With the participation of representatives of the MATES (Multi-Agency Training Exit Strategies for Radicalized Youth project) project partners in Germany, Spain, Portugal, Estonia, Slovenia.

14.55 – Sonia Specchia (Department for Juvenile and community Justice, Italian Ministry of Justice)

- Presentation of the RASMORAD P&P Project coordinated by the Department of Penitentiary Administration and the Department for Juvenile and community Justice of the Italian Ministry of Justice.

15.00 – Conclusion by TERR Committee Chair, MEP Nathalie Griesbeck

EN, FR, IT interpretation

Sandwich lunch